Seahorse Marine debuts at Sanctuary Cove

The weather forecast might be cold and bleak for the upcoming weekend at Sanctuary Cove, but the excited crew at Seahorse Marine Australia will be heating things up with the debut of the Seahorse 52 at its first Australian based boat show.

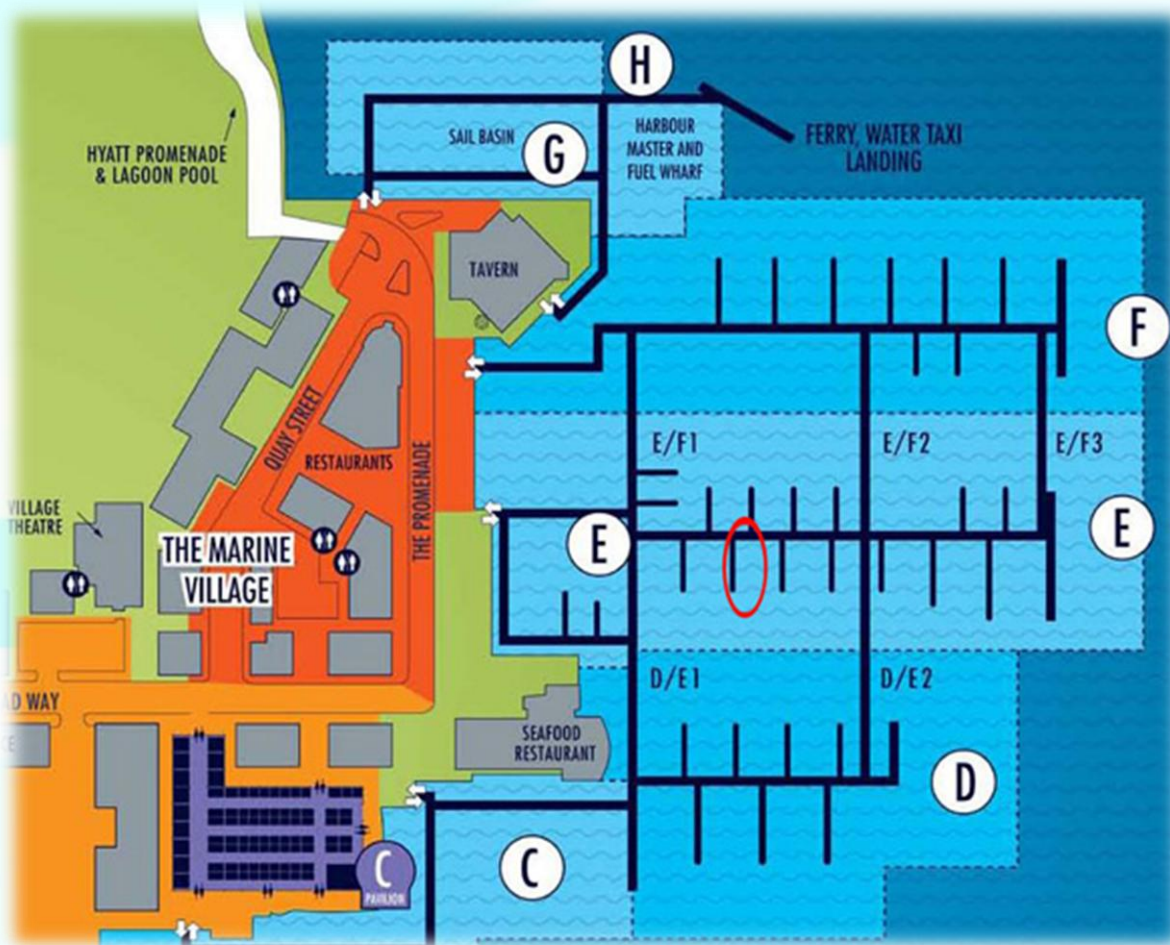

Andrew, Gary and Mick welcome you to drop by and have a closer inspection of the boat in person; we know that you will be impressed with the design, craftsmanship and value for money.

The Seahorse 52 will be on display the entire show located in berth E12.
